Water Rate Structure Advisory Committee

Indio Water Authority (IWA) is considering implementation of a new water rate structure. IWA is seeking customer input and is looking for community members to join our Water Rate Structure Advisory Committee. The committee will help guide IWA in its search for a new water rate structure that is fair and rewards efficiency, and will meet three to four times over the course of the next several months.

Please consider applying for the committee; IWA is eager to incorporate customer feedback into our decisions on a new water rate structure. Applications are due by 5 p.m. Monday, April 15, 2013.

Committee Responsibilities:

- Study the final report on water rate structures and the long range financial plan
- Give input for community outreach meeting messaging and logistics
- Review options for rate structures and make recommendations to staff and the IWA board
- Examine existing draft rate variance policy and advise and the IWA board

Return hardcopy via mail or in person:

Southwest Flowers, no; Joshua trees, yes

Wildflowers this year? Forget it. The second year of a two-year winter drought put the kabosh on any noticeable display. But Joshua trees are blooming heartily all across the Southwest and experts are not sure why.
